August 25, 2022

Defendant entered his plea of guilty on March 18, 2022. Sentencing has been substantially adjourned at defendant's request and will proceed as scheduled on September 13, 2022. The Court will not again replace and substitute new CJA counsel at this late date.

By ECF

Hon. P. Kevin Castel
United States District Judge
United States Courthouse
500 Pearl Street
New York, New York 10007

The defendant is advised that the only matter remaining before this Court is sentencing. The defendant will be free to request a change of counsel in the U.S. Court of Appeals, if he elects to proceed with an appeal. The application for unlimited access to the legal library at Essex while it is open is denied without prejudice to any request he wishes to make to the Warden of the facility.

SO ORDERED.

Re: United States v. DeeJay White,
19 Cr. 536 (PKC)

P. Kevin Castel
United States District Judge

Dear Judge Castel:

We represent DeeJay White in connection with the above-captioned matter. There has been a breakdown in our relationship with Mr. White such that we must request a conference before the Court at Your Honor's earliest available convenience. We are available any day next week except for Friday. Thank you for your consideration of this request.

Separately, Mr. White has informed us that his access to the legal library at the Essex facility has been limited compared to similarly-situated inmates who possess court orders granting them unlimited access to the library when it is open. At Mr. White's request, we ask that the Court issue such an order for Mr. White so that he may continue to research the legal issues in his case.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Telemachus P. Kasulis
